

Name: _____

Goods and Services

goods: items that can be bought	services: jobs that someone will do for another person for money taxes: money that is collected and used to pay for things done by the leaders/government	producers: someone who grows or makes something that they can sell consumers: a person who buys things	earn: to get/deserve something